Rules for Life Membership

1. A paid-up Life Membership in the League shall be available to any member, other than a Family Member, upon payment of a fee twenty-five times the annual dues rate, and upon approval of the application by the League's Executive Committee.
2. The Life Membership fee is currently $1225 in the U.S.¹ and possessions, $1550 in Canada², and $1900 elsewhere³. Canadian and International Life Members may opt to receive digital-only magazines for a fee of $1225.
3. Upon completion of payment, Life Membership will be granted with the approval of the Executive Committee.
4. Life Memberships are non-transferable and dues payments are non-refundable. However, upon the death of a Life Member, membership may pass to a surviving spouse upon request, if he or she is an ARRL Family Member, either unexpired term or life, and licensed at the time of the Life Member's death.
5. A Family Life Membership in the League shall be available to any family member of a paid in full Life Member upon receipt of a fee of $250, and including a provision for regular Life Membership to be acquired upon the additional payment of the difference in dues normally required, if he or she should cease to be eligible for the $250 rate. In accordance with the By-Laws, the address of the Family Life Member must be the same as that of the principal Life Member.
6. Life membership is also available to blind members upon payment of a fee of $250. Blind Rate: No receipt of a magazine; requires a one time signed and dated statement of Legal Blindness. Dues subject to change without notice and are nonrefundable.
7. All payments must be in U.S. funds. Checks must be drawn on a bank within the U.S. We are not responsible for cash lost in the mail.

I agree to the conditions and terms as outlined above.
